

by Miss Beatrice Rindfusz.

Dillinger Sought At Beaches Here

Heavily armed Monroe county deputy sheriffs and Lucas county, Ohio, deputies searched cottages in the vicinity of Horsehead Bend on Lake Erie, near Estral Beach, Saturday night for John Dillinger, notorious bandit and killer, who escaped from the Crown Point, Indiana jail after holding up guards with a wooden pistol.

The Toledo sheriff had received word from Lima, Ohio, officials that they had a tip that Dillinger was hiding near Estral Beach.

Four Lucas county deputies came here and with the aid of three members of Sheriff Joseph J. Bairley's force searched the cottages. The Monroe county officers taking part in the search were Chief Deputy William Hoffman, Deputies Albert Doss and Kenneth McKenele.